In the last 50 years, the federal government has grown five times faster than the median family income. Congresses controlled by both parties and presidents of both parties and every combination thereof we have run up deficits to pay for this unsustainable growth. If we don't enact systemic changes to this broken process, our children and grandchildren will be the ones that pay the price.

This is part of the message RSC Chairman Jeb Hensarling has been taking to the people the past couple weeks. He is using the Democrat imposed spring break to spread awareness and drum up support for the American Taxpayer Bill of Rights .

Here are some solid articles detailing his message and this important reform agenda:
